35,000 MORE TROOPS ON WAY TO TURKEY

LONDON, March 10.—Although a bad spell of weather has hindered the operations of the fleet of British and French warships trying to force a passage through the Dardanelles, the attacks continue with slow but sure success. A veil of silence and mystery has been thrown over the plans for land operations, but it is reported by reliable authority that 22 transports carrying 35,000 soldiers are on the way to the Dardanelles.

GERMAN CRUISER OFF NEWPORT NEWS.
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., March 10.—The German cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, about which there has been much mystery, arrived off this port some time this morning. The cruiser's bow appeared, from the distance, to be damaged, and she is thought to be in need of coal.

IN THE CARPATHIANS THE CZAR'S FORCES CAPTURED THE COMMANDER OF AN AUSTRIAN BATTALION, TOGETHER WITH EIGHT OFFICERS AND THREE COMPANIES OF TROOPS.

AMERICANS WARNED TO LEAVE ON ACCOUNT FOOD SHORTAGE.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Secretary Bryan announced today that the food shortage in Mexico City is increasing in seriousness and that the warning issued to Americans last Friday to leave the city was based chiefly on the food shortage and upon general conditions prevailing there.

BRITISH AGAIN IN PANIC ACCOUNT SUBMARINES

LONDON, MARCH 10.—AFTER A BRIEF LULL, THE ACTIVITIES OF GERMAN SUBMARINES HAVE BEEN RESUMED WITH REDOUBLED VIGOR. THREE BRITISH SHIPS HAVE BEEN SUNK DURING THE LAST 36 HOURS, AND ANOTHER WAS CHASED BUT MANAGED TO ESCAPE OWING TO SUPERIOR SPEED.

BRITISH REJOICING OVER THE SUCCESS OF THE INTERNATIONAL FLEET IN THE DARDANELLES HAS BEEN TURNED INTO DISMAY BY THE NEW SUBMARINE ATTACKS.

SUPERBA POOL ARTISTS WILL CONTEST FOR THE PRINCE GEORGE TROPHY

Under the auspices of the Prince George hotel will begin this evening at P. C. Rodgers' billiard hall on Beach street a pool tournament, in which only members of the Brooklyn National Baseball club will be permitted to participate. It is understood that there are a number of excellent pool players among the visiting ball tossers, and some fancy cue work is looked for. The tournament will last two days, ending Thursday night. To the winner will be awarded a handsome and valuable cup, known as the "Prince George Trophy," and provided by that popular hostelry's genial proprietors, Messrs. Hilyard and Holroyd.

ONE SHELL EXPLODES ONE HUNDRED TIMES

The first time such a spectacle has been presented at any place, A. Rousseau will give a vivid reproduction of European war scenes on Ebbets field next Wednesday evening, the 17th of March. This wonderful exhibition will be given with the aid of fireworks, big gun shells and other explosives, the action of which will constitute a magnificent spectacle—one that has seldom been surpassed on this continent. To the war scenes, which are to include reproductions of battles and storming of cities and forts, will be added a further touch of realism by the presence in the air of Zeppelins and other aerial machines.

Another novel feature of the exhibition will be the explosion in the air of one huge shell 100 different times. This in itself, says Mr. Rousseau, will be worth the price of admission into the field. The Daily News is authorized to state that sample shells will be loaned for display in show windows of business places whose proprietors make application to this office.

SOLDIERS TELL VIVID STORIES

Give Personal Touches Impossible to War Correspondent in These Days.

JOKERS EVEN IN TRENCHES

Irish Spirit Proves Irrepressible in Face of Grave Danger—Sea Fight as Seen From the Engine Room.

London.—The war mailbag is just now a prolific source of interest. Vivid letters from soldiers at the front or in hospital bases and scrappy notes from the tars with the "silent fleet" mirror the actualities of war with a wealth of intimate detail and picturesque personal touches impossible to the harshly censored war correspondent.

The following is written from the front by Corp. T. Trainor:

"We have had German cavalry thrown at us six times in the last four hours, and each time it has been a different body, so that they must have plenty to spare. There is no eight hours for work, eight hours for sleep and eight hours for play with us, whatever the Germans may do."

"The strain is beginning to tell on them more than on us, and you can see by the weary faces and trembling hands that they are beginning to break down."

"One prisoner taken by the French near Courtrai sobbed for an hour as though his heart were broken, his nerves were so much shaken by what he had been through. The French are fighting hard all round us with a grit and go that will carry them through."

"Have you ever seen a little man fighting a great, big, hulking giant who keeps on forcing the little chap about the place until the giant tires himself out, and then the little one, who has kept his wind, knocks him over? That's how the fighting here strikes me."

"We are dancing about round the big German army, but our turn will come. Our commanders know their business, and we shall come out on top all right."

Sergeant Major McDermott does not write under ideal literary conditions, but his style is none the worse for the inspiration furnished by the shrieking shell:

"I am writing to you with the enemy's shells bursting and screaming overhead; but God knows when it will be posted, if at all."

"We are waiting for something to turn up to be shot at, but up to now, though their artillery has been making a fiendish row all along our front, we haven't seen as much as a mosquito's eyelash to shoot at. That's why I am able to write, and some of us are able to take a bit of rest while the others keep 'dick.'"

"There is a fine German airship hanging around like a great blue bottle up in the sky, and now and then our gunners are trying to bring it down, but they haven't done it yet."

"It's the quantity, not the quality of the German shells that is having effect on us, and it's not so much the actual damage to life as the nerve-racking row that counts for so much."

"Townsmen who are used to the noise and roar of streets can stand it better than the countrymen, and I think you will find that by far the fittest men are those of regiments mainly recruited in the big cities."

"A London lad near me says it's no worse than the roar of the motor buses and other traffic in the city on a busy day."

Gaelic Spirit Irrepressible.

The Gaelic spirit has not deserted Sergt. T. Cahill under fire. He writes: "The Red Cross girls with their pretty faces and their sweet ways are as good men as most of us, and better than some of us. They are not supposed to venture into the firing line at all, but they get there all the same, and devil a one of us durst turn them away."

"Mike Clancy is that droll with his larking and bamboozling the Germans that he makes us nearly split our sides laughing at him and his ways. 'Yesterday he got a stick and put a cap on it, so that it peeped up above the trench just like a man, and then the Germans kept shooting away at it until they must have used up tons of ammunition.'"

But Mike Clancy was not the only practical joker in the trenches, as the following from a wounded soldier shows:

"Our men have just had their papers from home, and have noted, among other things, that 'Business as Usual' is the motto of patriotic shopkeepers."

"In last week's hard fighting the Wiltshires, holding an exposed position, ran out of ammunition, and had to suspend firing until a party brought fresh supplies across the open under a heavy fire."

"Then the wag of the regiment, a Cockney, produced a biscuit tin with 'Business as Usual' crudely printed on it, and set it up before the trenches as a hint to the Germans that the fight could now be resumed on more equal terms."

"Finally the tin had to be taken in because it was proving such a good target for the German riflemen, but the joker was struck twice in rescuing it."

"A wounded private of the Buffs relates how an infantryman got temporarily separated from his regiment at Mons, and lay concealed in a trench while the Germans prowled around."

"Just when he thought they had left him for good ten troopers left their horses at a distance and came forward on foot to the trench."

"The hidden infantryman waited until they were half-way up the slope, and then sprang out of his hiding place with a cry, 'Now, lads, give them hell!' Without waiting to see the 'lads' the Germans took to their heels."

From Men in the Fleet.

Equally interesting are some of the letters from men with the fleet. Tom Thorne, writing to his mother, in Sussex, says:

"Before we started fighting we were all very nervous, but after we joined in we were all happy and most of us laughing till it was finished. Then we all sobbed and cried."

"Even if I never come back, don't think I've died a painful death. Everything yesterday was as quick as lightning."

"We were in action on Friday morning off Helgoland. I had a piece of shell as big as the palm of my hand go through my trousers, and as my trouser legs were blowing in the breeze, I think I was very lucky."

A gunroom officer in a battle cruiser writes:

"The particular ship we were engaged with was in a pitiful plight when we had finished with her—her funnels shot away, masts tottering, great gaps of daylight in her sides, smoke and flame belching from her everywhere. She speedily keeled over and sank like a stone, stern first. So far as is known, none of her crew was saved. She was game to the last, let it be said, her flag flying till she sank, her guns barking till they could bark no more."

"Although we ourselves suffered no loss, we had some very narrow escapes. Three torpedoes were observed to pass us, one within a few feet. Four-inch shells, too, fell short or were ahead of us. The sea was alive with the enemy's submarines, which, however, did us no damage. They should not be underrated, these Germans. That cruiser did not think, apparently, of surrender."

What naval warfare seems like to the "black squad," imprisoned in the engine room is described by an engine-room man of the Laurel, who went through the "scrap" off Helgoland. Writing to his wife, he says:

"It was a terribly anxious time for us, I can tell you, as we stayed down there keeping the engines going at their top speed in order to cut off the Germans from their fleet. We could hear the awful din around and the scampering of the tars on deck as they rushed about from point to point, and we knew what was to the fore when we caught odd glimpses of the stretchers bearers with their ghastly burdens."

"We heard the shells crashing against the sides of the ship or shrieking overhead, as they passed into the water, and we knew that at any moment one might strike us in a vital part and send us below for good."

"It is ten times harder on the men whose duty is in the engine room than for those on deck taking part in the fighting, for they, at least, have the excitement of the fight, and if the ship is struck they have more than a sporting chance of escape. We have none."

From a Dying Frenchman.

The most dramatic letter comes from the French. On one of the fields of battle, when the Red Cross soldiers were collecting the wounded after a heavy engagement, there was found a half sheet of notepaper, on which was written a message for a woman, of which this is the translation:

"Sweetheart: Fate in this present war has treated us more cruelly than many others. If I have not lived to create for you the happiness of which both our hearts dreamed, remember that my sole wish is now that you should be happy. Forget me. Create for yourself some happy home that may restore to you some of the greater pleasures of life. For myself I shall have died happy in the thought of your love. My last thought has been for you and for those I have at home. Accept this, the last kiss, from him who loved you."

Writing from a fortress on the frontier, a French officer says the colonel in command was asked to send a hundred men to stiffen some reservist artillery in the middle of France, far away from the war area. He called for volunteers. "Some of you who have got wives and children or old mothers fall out," he said. Not a man stirred. "Come, come," the colonel went on. "No one will dream of saying you funk. Nothing of that kind. Fall out!" Again the ranks were unbroken. The colonel blew his nose violently. He tried to speak severely, but his voice failed him. He tried to frown, but somehow it turned into a smile. "Very well," he said, "you must draw lots." And that was what they did.

Call "281 Apple."

New York—Union N. Bethel, president of the New York Telephone company, was being joked about his poor memory by John L. Swayze, the company's counsel. "You don't even know the telephone number of Adam and Eve," said Swayze. "I don't. What was it?" Bethel acknowledged. "281 Apple," he was told.

THE WALKING WOOLFS ATTRACT ATTENTION

COUPLE ARRIVED IN DAYTONA
TUESDAY AFTERNOON AND RE-MAINED UNTIL TODAY—HAVE WALKED FOR FIVE YEARS.

A couple that attracted much attention on the streets Tuesday afternoon was the "Walking Woofs," D. H. Woolf and wife, of Kansas City, Kan., and their outfit of horse and two-wheel cart and dog, "Don."

Mr. and Mrs. Woolf have been walking for the past five years, and in that time have covered over 21,000 miles and walked through nearly every state in the Union.

Mr. Woolf was a violinist and orchestra leader when his health failed, and with the purpose of regaining it he started on a walking trip to the Ozark mountains, accompanied by Mrs. Woolf, who has been with him on all subsequent trips. This first trip was started on June 1, 1909, and after making 300 miles they returned home well satisfied with the benefit derived by Mr. Woolf.

Their second trip was begun May 2, 1910, taking the horse, Dolly, and the dog, Don, which are now with them. They walked to New York city, a distance of 2,000 miles, but returned home by rail. They next walked to San Antonio, Tex., and then after a lapse of several months they walked to Atlanta, Ga., thence to the Atlantic coast and northward to Boston, Mass., reaching Kansas City on Thanksgiving day, 1911, with 8,000 more miles to their credit.

They started on their next trip on May 1, 1912, going to Salt Lake City and on to Colton, Cal. A small part of this distance was made by rail. On this trip, while at Provo, Utah, they met W. J. Bryan, now secretary of state, and have a photograph which includes Mr. Bryan in their group. They also met Theodore Roosevelt when on their trip to New York and were entertained by him at Sagamore Hill.

They have several times met Weston, the famous walker, and have stopped with him at various places.

They began their present trip the 2nd of last April and are now headed for Portland, Me. They crossed this state from Tampa to Daytona.

Their camping outfit is carried on the cart which is covered with cards and other souvenirs of the places they have visited.

Mrs. Woolf is a picture of perfect health and Mr. Woolf has increased his weight from 108 to 145 pounds, and is in excellent health.

The expenses of their trips are met by lecturing and the sale of a book of their travels, entitled, "Tramping and Camping."

Mr. and Mrs. Woolf pitched their tent last night on the old Daytona lumber yard property at the corner of Magnolia avenue and First street, remaining over until today to have photographs made for a moving picture film with the scenery of this place to add to their collection of pictures of the various places they have visited, and which they will use for exhibition purposes. They go from this city to St. Augustine.

NEXT SATURDAY EVENING

A number of the guests of the Clarendon and others who are wintering in Seabreeze and Daytona have conceived the idea of giving a testimonial to H. A. Tucker and his orchestra, in recognition of their efforts to please everyone, their allowance of an unlimited number of encores in the ballroom, etc. A committee has been appointed to arrange for a concert and dance, also to solicit subscriptions. The concert will take place Saturday evening, March 13th, at 8:00 o'clock, at which a special program will be given, to be followed by dancing. The committee is composed of the following gentlemen: Mr. McKeel, Stephen Bonsal, Mr. Ranslow, Mr. Allis, A. D. S. Johnston and H. H. Johnston. The management of the hotel has extended the use of the ballroom for this occasion, but wish it distinctly understood that it in no sense has to do with the promotion of the affair, as the expense of the music for the season has been met according to contract.

Cards at $1.00 each may be obtained at Hankins' drug stores. A voluntary subscription list is also at the Hotel Clarendon cigar stand.

War Casualty.

"What do you mean by calling me up at this time of night? Henry, I'll be waiting for you when you get home!" "That's it, m'dear." Henry's voice was missing dreadfully. "I just wanted tell ye I'm interned at Casey's saloon till war's over. Good-night." Buffalo Express.

Daily Thought.

Good, food, honest wine, a grateful conscience and a little pleasant chat before a man retires are worth all the possets and apothecary's drugs.—Stevenson.

THESE BROOKLYN FANS
THINK WELL OF DAYTONA

Dr. Curtis Claassen, and brother, Harry C. Claassen, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who accompanied the Superbas to Daytona, and have since been watching their daily practice, were forced to tear themselves away on account of business, and return home today. Dr. Curtis Claassen is a prominent Brooklyn physician, and Harry Claassen conducts a large pharmacy in the same city. Both gentlemen are enthusiastic baseball fans, either one of which would willingly fight his way through the Everglade marshes to see the Superbas capture the pennant this fall.

"When we get home," remarked Dr. Claassen to a representative of the News, "our friends there will learn more real facts about Daytona and the hospitality extended to the Brooklyn 'bunch' than would be possible to convey through any similar source. We have thoroughly enjoyed our visit here and hope to return next season."

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Underwood and child, who came to Daytona in the same party, left for home yesterday, where Mr. Underwood will resume his reportorial duties on the New York Press.

New Use for Matches.

When the finger is stained with ink and you have no sand soap in the house, just take a match, moisten it slightly and rub over the discolored parts. The stains will soon disappear.

Unkind Comment.

Recently while going through a cemetery in a California town the visitor came upon this on a tombstone: "I would not live away." Beneath the inscription some irreverent person had penciled, "Sour Grapes."

EXPECT TO SPEND THE BALANCE OF SEASON HERE

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nettleton, of Syracuse, N. Y., who have spent many winters at the big resort, came in yesterday and expect to remain during the balance of the season. S. W. Nettleton is expected to join his brother some time today.

ARRIVALS OF A DAY

Recent arrivals at the big resort include Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nettleton, Syracuse, N. Y.; L. J. Hinde, Toledo, Ohio; Mrs. W. E. Barnett, child and nurse, Spartanburg, S. C.; J. C. Bushby, New York; Mrs. R. W. Cummings, Mrs. George D. Grannis, Minneapolis; Dr. J. B. Poucher, Syracuse, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Todd, Kalamazoo; Mrs. E. C. Titus, Miss Ada G. Titus, New York; Mrs. L. E. Gordon, Miss Gordon, Hartford, Conn.

GOLF IS POPULAR GAME

WITH BASEBALL PLAYERS

If Jack Coombs doesn't help pitch the Superbas to victory the coming season it won't be because he neglected to practice during his stay in Daytona. The veteran twirler is taking the best of care of himself in the hope that the injury, received last fall during the world series, and which kept him in bed several months, will eventually disappear.

When Mr. Coombs is not practicing baseball at Ebbets field he is playing golf on the Clarendon links, a game which he thoroughly enjoys. Asked regarding his physical condition since coming to Daytona, the Brooklyn star pitcher remarked: "I never felt better in my life. This air down here would make a sick man well, and a well man a giant."

BASEBALL PLAYERS

INDULGE IN GOLF

A very interesting "sixsome" was played on the Clarendon golf links yesterday morning, when William Klem, Wilbert Robinson and Frank O'Neill met Charles Ebbets, Jack Coombs and Len. Wooster. The score at the finish of the seventh hole was 2-up in favor of the first trio. William Klem made the seven holes in 46; Len. Wooster in 47 and President Chas. Ebbets in 77. The game was played under the Nassau system.

WIND PREVENTED RUTH

LAW'S DAILY EXHIBITIONS

Ruth Law did not attempt to make a flight in her aeroplane yesterday, owing to the wind which blew a gale all day. She spent a good share of the afternoon trying to defeat her husband on the Clarendon bowling alleys, but without success.

6560 Acres of Cut Over Pine Land
$4.25 Per Acre

This property lies seven miles west of New Smyrna, on the Orange City branch of the Florida East Coast Railway, which cuts through one corner of it, and parallels it for three and a half miles.

The County road from New Smyrna to DeLand splits it through the center for four miles, same is being hard surfaced now.

About two thousand acres is prairie land, balance cut over pine, and no better trucking or fruit land can be found in Florida.

The drainage is perfect as it lies 22 1-2 feet above tide water, which hits it on the north.

The lands in the adjoining section have sold from $25.00 to $50.00 per acre, and prosperous farms are located on them.

The owner of the land has been holding for $8.50 but is forced to realize quickly, and will sacrifice at above figure.

I would prefer to show this land to someone who knows values when he sees them, and it will take only a few hours to demonstrate it.

THIS SECTION OF EAST COAST IS MECCA FOR TOURISTS

Hundreds of tourists have arrived in Daytona and adjoining towns within the past two weeks, who have never been here before. They have come up from Miami, Palm Beach and other extreme southern points, and not being entirely satisfied with climatic conditions existing in those places, have stopped off here as a sort of experiment. It is doubtful if there is one person in ten of the large number, who can be termed strictly transient, who will not say that this section of the East Coast is blessed with every natural advantage which the tourist seeks, and for which he expressly came south to enjoy. In other words, there are more satisfied visitors in Daytona and adjoining towns right now, than can be found in any other section of Florida.

LOOKING FOR REMAINS OF BOTHWELL IN DENMARK

COPENHAGEN, March 9.—Sir Archibald Buchanan-Hepburn has asked the Danish savant, Dr. F. C. Hansen, to examine the remains of Earl Bothwell, Queen Mary Stuart's third husband, which are at Faarevejle church, Denmark, and it is hoped now to establish the identity according to new information procured in England. It has not been absolutely settled that Bothwell's remains are still in Faarevejle, although that is the tradition, and it is likely that the Earl was buried there. Bothwell died at Dragsholm, in Denmark, and, as nobody asked for his body, it was buried at Faarevejle, one of the most beautiful places in Denmark.

DR. CAUTHERS OBLIGED TO CUT SHORT HIS VACATION

Dr. James A. Cauters is in receipt of a telegram, Tuesday, from Monticello, N. Y., informing him that Dr.
A. F. McWilliams, whom he had left in charge of his practice, had been severely injured in a runaway accident and had been taken to a hospital in Middletown, N. Y., for treatment. Dr. Cauters had intended to remain here until April, but left this morning for Monticello, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Mildred Cauters, and Mr. and Mrs. D.
B. Tuttle, who came to Daytona with them. The party has been located at 410 South Palmetto avenue. Dr.
Cauters is president of Monticello and also the most prominent physician of that place. He has been enjoying his first vacation in a period of 25 years.

Carpet knights," quoth a writer once in the long ago, "are such as have studied law, physic, or other arts or sciences, whereby they have become famous, and seeing that they are not knighted as soldiers, they are not therefore to use the horseman's title or spurs; they are only termed simply miles and milites, 'knight,' or 'knights of the carpet,' or 'knights of the green cloth,' to distinguish them from those knights that are dubbed as soldiers in the field."

ELKS' FUN MAKERS ARE PREPARING NEW SHOW

On Friday evening, March 12th, at the New Daytona theater, the long-looked for event will take place, when the big Elks' minstrel organization makes its appearance, with a brand new show, and a lot of good, up-to-date material, that is guaranteed to please any taste.

As has been customary, the musical program will be the feature. The Quality Four will have charge of the music. This organization played the first Elks' minstrel show last December and made a decided hit with local theater-goers. A program of new songs will be rendered, and an elaborate performance is planned from start to finish.

A. J. Malby and Scheffel Wright will be the principal comedians, assisted by 10 well-known local fun-makers, who will furnish laughs for a long time to come. Otis Pellicier will grace the interlocutors' chair as usual, and will use a dandy new song.

Wellington B. Shaw, who made the big hit of the first Elks' show will be on hand, and his songs will be even better than those he used at the first show.

In the olio Leon D. Brooks, who offered a number of character recitations in the other show, will change his style of entertainment and offer a snappy song and dance sketch number, in which his genuine ability as an eccentric dancer will be shown. Mr.
Brooks may spring a surprise in this way of new talent in local amateur circles, and announcements along this line will be made in due time.

A number of Elks are selling tickets, and the advance sale will go on at Hankins' early Thursday morning.
A sliding scale of prices will put the coveted tickets within reach of all, and a big house is expected to witness the performance which is being given for the benefit of the Elks' charity fund.

SUPERBAS ATTEND ELKS' MEETING

NUMBER OF BROOKLYN BASE-BALL TEAM AT LODGE, TUES-DAY EVENING—ELKS' MIN-STRELS GOT DONATION.

The regular meeting of Daytona Lodge, No. 1141, B. P. O. Elks, Tuesday evening was well attended, many visitors being present, among them a number of the members of the Brooklyn baseball team who are also members of the Order of Elks.

During the evening Senator Ed. Pierce, of Fargo, N. D., and Daytona Beach, made a generous donation of $50.00 to the Elks' minstrels.

NIGGER, NIGHTSHIRT,
TWO PINTS WHISKEY,
ONE PAIR OF DRUNKS

Anthony Almano stood up before Mayor Titus, Wednesday morning, and admitted being guilty of the charge of operating an automobile for hire, without license. In extenuation of his delinquency Mr. Almano pleaded financial distress, occasioned by scanty patronage. His honor ordered Almano to immediately procure a license, and imposed a fine of $10 and costs. The fine was remitted.

George Greenfield and "Sandy" Mitchell, two "high yaller" gents from Washington and New York, respectively, were "on the carpet" for getting drunk and exposing themselves to view. Night Officer Pent ran across the "lit up" pair Tuesday evening while they were trying to find room to perambulate on the wide sidewalk near Beach and Volusia. The sidewalk was deserted except for the presence of George and Sandy, but this fact was of little aid to the cops in their efforts to "get somewhere." When the mayor asked Sandy where the intoxicating cause came from, Sandy replied that his wife sent him a night shirt (fancy a nigger with a nightshirt!) about three weeks ago. Wrapped in the nightshirt were two pints of whiskey (and the wife sent it!). After waiting three weeks for the booze to age (such a waste of time; booze ages instantly in a dry town), Sandy and his pal proceeded to celebrate. You know the rest, except that the court fined each of the celebrants $5 and costs.

Mayor Titus looked like a man who had laid down "fours" against a little pair when Mitchell and Greenfield flashed fat rolls and peeled off greenbacks with which to pay their fines. And when the court learned that the men are waiters at Hotel Clarendon, smelling salts were needed—for the court.

NEWS OF THE HOTELS

Mrs. A. J. Hall, of Boston, Mass., is at the Hotel Windsor for the remainder of the season. Mrs. Hall has been coming to Florida for many years and has spent 20 winters in Daytona.

*Piano recital at First M. E. church by Mrs. C. A. Randall, interspersed with vocal, violin and readings, Thursday, March 11, at 8 p. m. 25 cents 179-3t

Following the regular custom the management of the Ridgewood and Despland hotels, will give the customary mid-week hops, this evening. The Wednesday evening dances at both of the hotels are very pleasant features of the week, and are looked forward to by the guests of the hostilities.

John Darling, president of the John Darling company of New York, is now stopping at the Despland, and will probably spend some time before proceeding to the north. Mr. Darling is accompanied by Mrs. Darling and his daughter. Miss Bathgate, also of New York, is a member of the party.

J. L. Tadd, the noted Philadelphia artist, is a late arrival at the Despland, who is expecting to spend considerable time here. Mr. Tadd and his works are known by many of Daytona's visitors who hail from the Keystone state, and his many friends will exert their influence, in hope that Mr. Tadd will become interested in Daytona and its artistic and picturesque settings.

The annual tennis tournament given under the management of the Despland hotel, and held on the hotel court, is attracting the attention of the larger share of the younger guests of the house, and is also being followed, through the columns of the Daily News, by all of the tennis fans of this vicinity. If the temperature increases slightly, large galleries will undoubtedly witness the final rounds in the various divisions of the tournament.

Mrs. Norma Hapgood, wife of the editor of Collier's weekly, accompanied by her maid, registered at the Despland late Monday evening, and will make the hotel her headquarters for several days. Mrs. Hapgood was formerly Miss Biglow, daughter of the Chicago millionaire, and is at present resting here from the strains of the winter gaities of the north. Mrs. Hapgood is expecting a party of guests from the north, next week, and will be at the Despland until their arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Klem arrived from Lakeville, N. J., Monday evening, and at once registered at the Despland, where they will spend the remainder of the month. Mr. Klem is a member of the umpiring staff of the National league, and while here will officiate at all the exhibition games arranged for the Superbas. In the opinion of the players, the press, and the fans of the country, Mr. Klem is the best arbiter in the National league, and his coming makes it certain that the decisions in the games played here this season will be as near perfection as possible.

That which attracts you to Central Park when you are in New York, Biltmore Estate when you are in Asheville, or Roland Park when you are in Baltimore, will some day attract you to Mountain Lake, in Polk County, Florida, where the Mountain Lake Corporation is developing a group of winter home sites and citrus fruit groves. The tract of land owned by the Corporation embraces two thousand five hundred acres and includes Iron Mountain, the highest point within sixty miles of the Atlantic coast between Key West and Northern New Jersey. Besides the ideal location, soil and climate for grapefruit and orange culture, to which it will be largely devoted, the property possesses unrivaled natural beauties which will be utilized by the landscape architect, an innovation in Florida development. The neighboring lakes and forests abound in fish and game.

While the Mountain Lake Corporation, through M. E. Gillett & Son, the well known nurserymen, will set out two thousand acres of orange and grapefruit trees in ten-acre groves, the remaining five hundred acres will be improved for winter homes with a golf course, country club, parks and roads. That this development will be of the highest character is assured in the engagement of Frederick Law Olmsted, of Brookline, Massachusetts, as the landscape architect. Mr. Olmsted inherited his love for landscape work, his father having been the foremost man of his day in that field. Among the elder Olmsted's best known achievements in landscaping were Central Park, New York, and Biltmore Estate. His son was associated with Mr. Olmsted in the work at Biltmore, and has to his own credit much that is notably good, including Roland Park, in Baltimore, and Forest Hills Gardens, Long Island.

Mountain Lake is in the heart of the leading citrus fruit section of Florida. It is but sixty miles distant from the Gulf of Mexico due east of Tampa and about as far from the Atlantic Ocean. Its exceptional elevation affords immunity from damaging cold, and as regards fertility of soil the tract is particularly fortunate. It is served by two railroads, the Seaboard Air Line and the Atlantic Coast Line. The groves will be planted and cared for during a period of five years by M. E. Gillett & Son, who have made the finest groves in the state under the same plan at Lucerne Park. The price of the first fifty of the ten-acre groves will be $7,500 each, one-third cash and the balance in equal quarterly payments, beginning one year thereafter, without interest. After fifty groves have been sold the price will be increased to keep pace with enhancing values following the work of intensive development.

This Corporation commands respect because of the standing of the gentlemen who compose it. Among the leading stockholders are: FRANK S. WASHBURN, president American Cyanamid Company, Niagara Falls, Ont., president Alabama Power Company, Birmingham, Ala. HERBERT E. GOODMAN, vice-president and general manager Goodman Manufacturing Company, electrical mining machinery, Chicago, Ill. JAMES MITCHELL, president Alabama Light & Power Company, Ltd., New York and London. ELMER A. SPERRY, president Sperry Gyroscope Company, New York. FREDERICK S. RUTH, president Mountain Lake Corporation, Lake Wales, Fla. M. E. GILLETT AND D. C. GILLETT, proprietors of Buckeye Nurseries and Gillett Lumber & Transportation Company, Tampa, Fla. E. C. STUART, vice-president State Bank of Bartow, Bartow, Florida, director Coronet Phosphate Company, Lakeland, Fla.

A preliminary booklet, now ready for distribution, gives the plans much more in detail. Copy will be mailed on application and further particulars supplied upon request.

Various Views of the Snow.

The farmer calls the snow the poor man's fertilizer. It keeps the ground warm and puts dollars—prospectively—in his vacant pockets. It is much esteemed by artists, who use almost every color except white when they set out to paint it. Their favorite tints for this purpose are pink, purple and a slaty blue. It seems to be the chief business of artists to inform us courteously but firmly, that our eyes are liars.—Exchange.

Artist's Generosity.

While a draftsman in the coast survey from November, 1854, to February, 1855, Whistler, the artist, boarded at the northeast corner of E and Twelfth streets, Washington. He is remembered as being usually late for breakfast and always making sketches on the walls. To the remonstrating landlord he replied: "Now, now, never mind! I'll not charge you anything for the decorations."

FORMER PRESIDENT TAFT BEGINS LECTURES TODAY
HANOVER, N. H., March 10.—Professor William Howard Taft, who is to deliver three lectures here on the question of government, will begin his first one today, choosing for his subject, "The Presidency." He will speak on "The Signs of the Times" and "Popular Government and the Supreme Court." Certain directors of Harborth have personally arranged the visit of the distinguished jurist.

AMERICAN BOWLING CONGRESS
MEETS IN "HEART OF ILLINOIS"
PEORIA, Ill., March 10.—Six hundred teams entered the bowling tournament of the American Bowling Congress at the coliseum, in this city, today. It will continue up to and including March 30.

Peoria entered 100 teams. Chicago 150 teams, and the remainder of the country provides the rest. As the great international tournament starts, the sport loving public is present in thousands of pin knights who invaded the "Heart of Illinois" and it is the boast of the Peoria hosts that the visitors will know that they have been to a grand tournament and have been royally entertained during their visit.

"There is no reason for any healthy men to stay away from the finest bowling alleys that have ever been built for a national tournament. The manufacturers have been selecting and sorting ten-pins for months in order to get six hundred sets of the finest maple pins that can be secured without a check or blemish and thoroughly dried and sorted into sets of uniform weight. The fact that almost 30,000 games must be bowled against these pins makes the fact of their selection more careful than otherwise."

During the past few years Pittsburgh entered in the tournament in 1909, 100 teams; Detroit, in 1910, 69 teams; St. Louis, in 1911, 147 teams; Chicago, in 1912, 231 teams; Toledo, in 1913, 198 teams; Buffalo, in 1914 entered 150 teams, and now it comes down to Peoria, which is the smallest of the cities in which a huge tournament has ever been held to demonstrate that their campaign for entries has been successful and the bowlers from their city will swell the total entries of teams to a great total of over 600.

The whole state of Illinois is aroused, and it is safe to say that the bowler who misses this tournament will miss one of the greatest tournaments ever conducted in the western hemisphere.

Judge Wouldn't Stand for It.
An ignorant justice of the peace in Florida was called on to decide a case. Counsel for both sides made their long and eloquent speeches after all the facts had been elicited from the witnesses. "Prisonah discharged," said the magistrate. "The hull accusation is done based on a dinged technicality."

Patience a Costly Virtue.
Patience is one of the costly virtues. If the value of a thing is to be measured by its cost, then this virtue is to be ranked among the very first.

The hotel season is at its height, the number of guests now registered at the various hotels of the city exceeding that of any previous week, this winter. All of the hotels are enjoying a rush business, so that the 1914-15 season will probably go down in the records as the "best ever."

Airtight Rubber Cork.

A stopper for bottles that is especially valuable for travelers consists of a solid rubber cork that goes down into the neck of the bottle, and a circular collar of soft rubber rising from the top of the cork. When the cork is driven home this collar is turned down over and outside the neck, which it makes watertight and airtight. The solid cork and the flexible collar are all in one piece.

Why Paper Allards Warmth.

The value of paper as a protector from cold is due, of course, to its being such a poor conductor of heat, a quality which increases rapidly as layer is added to layer. The best kind, for this purpose, is fortunately that which is most abundant—the one kind that can be had for the asking, or even for the taking.

Good Reason to Be Pleased.

SECTION OF HIGHWAY ALMOST IMPASSABLE

W. J. STONEMAN WRITES INDIGNANTLY OF BAD CONDITION OF SECTION OF ROAD IN SOUTHERN PART OF COUNTY.

The section of roadway in the southern part of this county that was a cause of much complaint earlier in the season, is evidently again in a deplorable state.

J. W. Stoneman, of Chagrin Falls, Ohio, and this city, who left Monday in his car for a trip to Palm Beach, accompanied by Mrs. Stoneman and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Parsons, of Selkirk, N. Y., who are spending the season here, writes from Melbourne that they had great difficulty in getting through.

Mr. Stoneman writes: "A stretch of road between Oak Hill and Mims is impassable. Every car that went through there had to have help to get out. It is a disgrace to the state. One day's work filling the holes with shell or brush would fix it so it would be passable. See if you can stir up somebody."

C. A. Hermann and his famous flying boat will arrive in Daytona next Wednesday, March 17th, to spend some time. Mr. Hermann will leave Palm Beach, Monday, coming up the coast by easy stages. P. C. Rodgers, who has been instrumental in having the flying-boat come here, states that the novel machine and its daring operator will fly over and around the city before alighting at headquarters at some point within Daytona along the Halifax.
